The Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Some states prohibit discrimination because of age. The Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 prohibits discrimination on the basis of age with respect to individuals who are at least 40 but less than 65 years of age. If this state prohibits the request of any information on this form, this information will not be used to discriminate against possible employment.

We have designed this form to comply with State and Federal fair employment practice laws prohibiting discrimination on the basis of an applicant's sex or minority status. Questions directly or indirectly reflecting such status have been included only when needed to determine bona fide occupational qualifications or for other personnel purposes. Such questions are appropriately noted on the application. Notwithstanding these efforts, the manufacturer of this form does not assume responsibility and hereby disclaims any liability for inclusion in this form, of any questions upon a violation of State and Federal fair employment practice law may be based.
